

Music at the Gramercy

Presenting for the first time...

For three decades, Prudence Johnson, singer and Dan Chouinard, pianist, have enjoyed a musical friendship, performing and touring the country together. The two traveled across the US with Garrison Keillor in the 2022/23 season.

Prudence and Dan share a love of history and have written several shows together that highlight the music of an era and a place, usually Minnesota.

They express their love for classic country music in the band Lush Country, and perform regularly with storyteller Kevin Kling. Dan and Prudence have recently taken a deep dive into the music of a true American original, Randy Newman, and perform songs from his solo albums and award-winning film scores.
